5. Make a Precis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title : 10

The great advantage of early rising is the good start it gives us in our day's work. The early riser has done a large amount of hardwork before the other men have got out of bed. In early morning, mind is fresh and few other distractions. In many cases the early risers also find time to take some exercise in fresh morning air and this exercise supplies him with a fund of energy that will last until the evening. The late risers, despite their best efforts, will probably not produce as good a result as the early riser, because he misses the best working hours of the day. Early rising leads to good health and spirits for the labours of a new day.
